

AUSTRIAN PEACE DELEGATION WILL REACH FRANCE ON MAY 12

ion that the treaty as it now stands gave honorable and satisfactory terms to Belgium and recommended that it should be signed.

The Council unanimously endorsed M. Hyman's view, but was equally unanimous in expressing the opinion that the attention of the powers should be drawn to the financial and economic situation in Belgium and to the necessity that the Allies assure Belgium of complete support looking to her economic restoration. The Council was further of the opinion that the Allies should be asked to support the initiation of negotiations with Holland regarding the settlement of the question of the freedom of the Scheldt and the waterways of East Belgium.

AUSTRIAN DELEGATES INVITED TO FRANCE TO RECEIVE PEACE TERMS

Expected to Be at St. Germain on May 12—Council of Three at Work on Treaty.

PARIS, May 5 (United Press).—A despatch from Vienna today reported the Allies had invited the Austrian peace delegates to come to St. Germain on May 12.

PARIS, May 5 (United Press).—Immediately after presentation of the German treaty the "Big Three" will begin assembling the articles of the Austrian pact, according to authoritative information. While no official announcement has been made to that effect, it is generally understood a formal invitation has been despatched to the Austrian Government to send its delegates to the Peace conference. Preparations for their reception at St. Germain, near Versailles, were begun Saturday. Unofficial information has been received that the Austrians probably will arrive in St. Germain a week from today.

PEACE DELEGATION DOESN'T SUIT GERMANS

All Sorts of Criticisms Are Being Registered Against It, Says Bernstorff.

BERLIN, May 5, (Associated Press).—The Peace Department of the Foreign Office, according to Count von Bernstorff, who is acting in an advisory capacity to the Government, is being besieged by Germans of high and low degree who are registering all sorts of criticism.

Some of them think the delegation should be enlarged, while others object to its huge size. Apparently no one is satisfied with its makeup.

PARIS AGAIN HEARS REDS HAVE GIVEN UP BUDAPEST

Copenhagen, However, Gets Despatch Denying Communists Have Surrendered.

PARIS, May 5.—The Matin today declared it had received confirmation that the Hungarian Soviet Government had capitulated.

COPENHAGEN, May 5.—A despatch received from Budapest today denied that the Hungarian Soviet Government had accepted the Allies' demand to surrender.

BERLIN, Sunday, May 4 (Associated Press).—Budapest is the scene of the greatest panic, according to despatches to newspapers here. Recent statements on the situation by Bela Kun, the Soviet Foreign Minister, have led to a complete disappearance of order, and a narrow escape from violence at a meeting of the Soldiers' and Workers' Council. Red guards have patrolled the streets of the city, threatening the bourgeoisie.

LONDON, May 5.—Hungarian Soviet forces have recaptured the town of Szekes, on the Tisza River, from the Rumanians, according to a Hungarian wireless message dated Sunday in Budapest.

RATE ARGUMENTS HEARD.

Five Suits Before Supreme Court Assail Federal Power.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The Supreme Court today heard arguments in five suits involving the right of the Railroad and Wire Administrations to fix rates over the objections of the various State utility and corporation commissions. The attacks on the Railroad Administration's exercise of power come from North Dakota where the State Supreme Court held that the President, acting through the director general of railroads, did not have the right to set "interstate" rates but only "intrastate" rates.

The wire suits were brought from South Dakota, Massachusetts, Illinois and Kansas.

REDS' GUNBOATS ATTACK ALLIES TWICE ON DVINA

Repulsed in Two Artillery Battles—Bolsheviks Suffer Losses on Other Sectors.

ARCHANGEL, Saturday, May 3 (Associated Press).—The Bolshevik gunboat flotilla on the Dvina attacked the Allied positions near the Junction with the Vaga second time on Friday, but were driven off by the guns of the Allied land batteries which outranged the weapons of the enemy.

The first attack of the kind was made Thursday, when the enemy fleet attempted to approach the positions held by American, British and Russian forces on the right bank of the river, but failed, the Allies having guns mounted which covered all parts of the channel.

The ice has broken up in the river near Archangel, and though the channel is still a mass of swiftly floating ice cakes, it is only a matter of a few days until the Allied gunboats can force their way upstream and go to the aid of the Allied land defenses.

A report to headquarters here this morning said that the situation along the Dvina was quiet.

The feeling in Archangel is that the crisis on the Dvina front has passed. The Bolsheviks, it is believed, delayed too long in grasping the advantage offered when the Dvina became open for navigation.

Additional reports on Thursday's defeat of the Bolshevik attack at Boroznik, on the Vaga sector, show that the Allies captured thirty-four prisoners and killed seventy of the enemy. The Allies' losses were four wounded. The Bolsheviks also lost one machine gun and fifty rifles. Artillery firing continued on the Vaga sector Friday.

The enemy artillery fire on the Dvina front has been without result as far as casualties are concerned, none having been reported. There was slight artillery activity Friday on the Volodva railway front.

An enemy force which attempted to cut the Allied line of communication east of the Vaga was repulsed. Twenty of this party surrendered when surrounded by the Allies.

FINNISH RED GUARDS IN CONTROL OF PETROGRAD

Prepare to March Against White Guards in Struggle for City.

LONDON, May 5.—Finnish Red Guards are now masters of the situation at Petrograd, according to a despatch from Copenhagen to the Matin. They have arrested members of the Danish Red Cross in that city, and it is reported they intend to march against the Finnish White Guards.

A state of siege was proclaimed in Petrograd Sunday, according to a wireless message from Tarskoe Selo. The Soviet Government has appointed a committee of three and given it unlimited power over the city and district of Petrograd.

Reports were received on Saturday from Paris that Finnish forces had occupied Petrograd, but the identity of the troops at the former Russian capital was not established.

U. S. PARTY IN BELFAST.

Representatives of Irish Here Meet Prof. De Valera.

DUBLIN, Sunday, May 4.—(Associated Press).—Frank P. Walsh, who, with former Gov. Edward F. Dunne of Illinois and Michael J. Ryan of Philadelphia, representatives of the Irish societies in the United States, arrived here yesterday to confer with Irish leaders on the question of arranging safe conduct for Sinn Féin leaders to go to Paris, left for England tonight.

Prof. Edward de Valera, Sinn Féin member of Parliament for East Mayo, accompanied him to the boat and later said that Mr. Walsh would return on Wednesday. Mr. Ryan and Mr. Dunne will visit Belfast on Monday and will be entertained at dinner at Maynooth College on Tuesday.

POLICE TO SHUT OFF CROSSTOWN TRAFFIC EARLY

Stringent Rules Made for Parade Crowds, Despite Whalen's Statement.

Notwithstanding orders from the office of the Mayor that the regulation of traffic before the 77th Division parade to-morrow should not be as stringent as on past parades, the orders issued by Police Headquarters and amplified by Inspector John O'Brien, in charge of traffic regulation, are quite as drastic as any the city has ever known.

For the Mayor his Secretary Grover A. Whalen said today that while the police would begin diverting traffic from Fifth Avenue as early as 7 o'clock in the morning the cross streets would not actually be blocked at Sixth and Madison Avenue until an hour or two later. Cross streets just south of Central Park will be open to cross town traffic, Mr. Whalen said, until a short time before the approach of the parade.

Chief Inspector John Daly said at Police Headquarters that Fifth Avenue and the side streets near Fifth Avenue would be cleared at 8 o'clock. Questions as to whether cross streets are to be allowed to operate and when pedestrians are to be barred from approaching the Avenue were referred to Inspector O'Brien, with the remark that all such matters were in his charge.

At the office of Inspector O'Brien it was stated that the only method of crossing Fifth Avenue from Washington Square to 11th Street to-morrow would be the subway shuttle in 42d Street. Sixty-five hundred regular police, the inspector said, and 8,500 reserves were to shut off all vehicles from Fifth Avenue and from the side streets one block east and west at 8 o'clock.

This order includes all cross street surface lines, it was explained, because the police found during the 27th Division parade that the passing across the avenue of cross street cars broke the police cordon and allowed great masses of people to wedge themselves into it and throw the street into disorderly congestion.

Persons on foot, the inspector said, will be admitted to Fifth Avenue through the side streets—except for such sections as are reserved for sick and wounded soldiers—and all police officers in charge at such cross street openings has decided that the sidewalk capacity of the avenue in his vicinity has been filled. In his discretion he may run as early as half past seven o'clock that Fifth Avenue in his neighborhood is sufficiently crowded and close the side streets (or one or two or west of the parade line) in the march of the 27th Division. Persons on foot on the other hand he may let them come until the very hour of the passing of the parade. It is the advice of the police that persons intending to watch the parade from the sidewalk arrive early.

At Madison Square, where so much difficulty from crowds was experienced in the march of the 27th Division, the lines will be drawn from the subway entrance at Fourth Avenue and 23d Street north in Fourth Avenue to 27th Street, and from the Sixth Avenue "L" station in Sixth Avenue north to 27th Street in Sixth Avenue. From 27th Street the police lines will extend all the way north to 110th Street in Madison Avenue, and north in Sixth Avenue to 59th Street.

Seven thousand members of the regular police force will be on the job and 6,000 reserves. Of the reserves, 1,250 men and 1,200 women will be on duty at the municipal stadium.

The following sections of the avenue are reserved for sick and wounded soldiers: Both sidewalks from 17th to 30th Streets; both sidewalks from 30th to 42d Streets; both sidewalks from 42d to 45th Streets; the west sidewalk from 45th to 52nd Streets; both sidewalks from 52nd to 59th Streets.

New stands for members of the families of the 77th Division men have been erected on both sides of Fifth Avenue, between 86th and 99th Streets and 102d and 104th Streets.

SLAIN HOSTAGES BEHEADED BY THE REDS IN MUNICH

Countess Westarp Believed to Have Been One of Communists' Victims.

PARIS, Saturday, May 3.—Only three of the hostages executed at Munich by the Communists before they were overpowered could be recognized. One of them was Prince Albert of Thurn and Taxis. Among the bodies which were unrecognizable were three that had been decapitated. They are believed to be those of the Countess Westarp, Councillor Dallmann, who has been known as one of Munich's benefactors, and Prof. Franz von Stuck.

BERLIN, Sunday, May 4.—Herr Klingenstein, a member of the Munich Communist Government, has been executed after a trial by court martial, a telegram from Augsburg today said. The message confirms the shooting of Herr Klingenstein, the commander of the Bavarian Army and says that Gustav Landauer, Minister of Enlightenment in the Communist Government, was murdered by a mob after he had been captured and imprisoned by the Government troops.

MRS. CHARLES B. SMITH FIRST WOMAN TO HOLD STATE MERIT BOARD JOB

Appointment of Wife of Former Buffalo Congressman Surprise to Political Leaders.

Mrs. Charles Bennett Smith, wife of a former Buffalo Congressman, who has been appointed to succeed Willard D. McKinstry as a member of the New York State Civil Service Commission, is the first woman to hold such a position here.

Mrs. Smith's appointment will give the Democrats control of the Civil Service Commission, the other members being John C. Clark, Republican, of New York City, President, and William Gorham Rod of Albany, Democrat, recently reappointed.

The selection came as a surprise to Democrats in the Senate, who while they realized that the place was to go to an up-State Democrat, did not suspect that the Governor had in mind a woman for the job. Mrs. Smith was identified with women's Democratic organizations in Erie County.

GERMAN OFFICERS, HERE ON U. S. SHIP, BOAST OF DEEDS

a line on the American destroyers in the Narrows. They did not confine their observations to the glasses, either. Capt. Emil Pohlman, one of the officers who admitted he was in command of the German raider Moewa, claimed he sank forty-three merchant ships during the war. He backed up this claim by proudly exhibiting pictures of the ships as they were sinking.

He circled constantly in among the 185 Red Cross nurses returning on the ship and made a general nuisance of himself by his bragging. "The British," sniffed the Captain, "are full of lies."

The German officers were bright and new uniforms and took keen delight in showing their gold lace to all aboard.

Another German officer, Alois Herrmann, chortled with glee as he told of being third engineer on an enemy destroyer during the fight at Zebruggo, when the Vindictive was sunk at the Mole.

"We counted 670 dead and wounded British sailors," he said. "We were outnumbered ten to one. It was a damn lie—if the British claim they were victorious in that skirmish. There was fifty-seven feet of clear water, even after the Vindictive was sunk. We fired on the days as they were lowering the boats. Splash, splash, they would all fall in the water."

The engineer was also in raids on the English coast. He also boasted of two raids at Dunkirk, one at Yarmouth, one at Margate and one at Dover.

"We sank the entire British patrol fleet at Dover," he said.

WIFE ATTACKS OFFICIAL WHEN HUSBAND IS FINED

"I'll show you," shouted Mrs. Norah Murphy, twenty-four and pretty, throwing off restraining hands of court attendants in the Flatbush Avenue Court, Brooklyn, today. "First it's my goose and guinea hens, and now it's my husband you will be meddling with. Take that."

"That" was a fist blow on the jaw of Inspector Edward J. Hughes of the Health Department, who had just received the conviction of John T. Murphy for violation of the sanitary code in keeping two geese and two guinea hens in the back yard of his home at No. 126 Troy Avenue. Magistrate Folwell fined Murphy $10, and that was Mrs. Murphy's story.

After spending an hour in a cell Mrs. Murphy tearfully admitted that she had a lot to learn about the laws and customs of this country, having but recently come over from Ireland. Magistrate Folwell fined her $10.

armories to-day will be the army ration, cooked on field kitchens.

In addition to the 77th Division regimental bands the Police and Fire Department bands will furnish music for the parade and cheer leaders will direct the applause at the stands.

The demand for grand stand tickets is unprecedented and it is feared that thousands of applicants will be disappointed.

MEN QUARTERED IN NATIONAL GUARD ARMORIES.

The units of the 77th which came from Camp Mills this afternoon are quartered as follows:

Division Headquarters—1st Field Artillery Armory, 88th Street and Broadway.

Every man in the division will be on leave to-night except details held in the armories on guard duty. All leave expire at 7 o'clock to-morrow morning when the various units will begin to move to the assemblage points about Washington Square.

GO TO UPTON FOR DEMOBILIZATION AFTER PARADE.

After the parade the units will return to the armories and on Wednesday the Division will start for Camp Upton for demobilization. Experience with the 27th Division showed the Mayor's Committee that the soldiers will not go to hotels and restaurants for meals following a parade, as they prefer to go to their homes. Basket lunches will be furnished to the men to-morrow afternoon and for their dinners they will be allowed to follow their own devices.

Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt will be the hostess to as many 77th Division men as can be jammed on the roof of the New Amsterdam Theatre to-morrow evening. At the same time the officers of the regiment will be given a dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria. These two big events with hundreds of smaller parties will wind up New York's reception to the 77th Division and a few days will see the windup of the 77th as a part of the United States Army.

"Good Girl." He Said and Died.

"This is good girl," declared Frank McAndrews as he drew a flask of poison from his pocket, drank it, staggered and fell dead across a table in the home of John Wisniewski, No. 6 Tenning Avenue, while the latter was out. The body was removed to St. John's morgue.

HOME OF LAWYER DAMAGED BY BOMB OF AMATEUR MAKE

Investigation Begun to Fix Responsibility for Explosion at East Orange.

Capt. Albert Ganser, of the Newark Bureau of Combustibles, and N. T. Gordon of the New Jersey State Labor Department, began a joint investigation this afternoon to fix responsibility for the bomb which early this morning wrecked the vestibule of the apartment house at Nos. 645-9 Central Avenue, East Orange.

The fact that the property is owned by Samuel F. Leber, general counsel for the Associated Employers of Pur Workers in New York and Brooklyn, is considered significant, and is said to be the reason for the inclusion of the Department of Labor in the investigation.

The vestibule was shattered, most of the windows in the house were broken, and several were broken in other houses in the neighborhood. The bomb, however, was apparently the product of amateur hands. The explosive was probably gunpowder and it was not tightly packed. Otherwise the whole building might have been wrecked. The fuse used was from an ordinary firecracker.

There has been a strike in progress for some time in the fur industry, and although Mr. Leber says he has received no threatening letters, it is believed he may have incurred the enmity of radical labor leaders by his efforts as lawyer for the employers.

Recently there was an effort to spread the strike to Newark, and there was some disorder. One strike leader was convicted of assault and another was held for the Grand Jury. Furthermore, an injunction was issued at Newark for the protection of the employers.

The apartment building is occupied by five families in addition to that of Mr. Leber. The other tenants are C. William Meisnick, a dealer in surgical instruments, E. W. Murphy, a wholesale provision dealer, Harold Herriek, stock broker, Nathan Gilder, a lawyer, and Louis Dancy, a rent manager for the Equitable building in Newark. Of all these tenants Mr. Leber is the only one who is considered likely to have enemies with bombing inclinations.

The Leber apartment house is in the fashionable residential district of East Orange. The bomb was placed in the vestibule near the front of the building. The explosion was so powerful that it was immediately preceding the explosion, which led them to think it was a time bomb.

Chief of Police O'Neill of East Orange said he believed the explosive was gunpowder. He learned that a maid employed by Leber had heard a noise outside the house shortly before the explosion, that she had gone out and seen two men come from under the front steps. They ran and disappeared in the woods.

Chief O'Neill said he believed the bomb was intended to be a scare and not to kill anybody. A fire cracker with the fuse removed was found in the vestibule.

GEN. ALEXANDER LAUDS SPIRIT OF MEN OF THE 77TH

Tells Hylan New York Fighters Are Good Citizens and Credit to Nation.

Mrs. Robert Alexander, a young woman of charming appearance, was presented to the Mayor of New York this afternoon as "the real Gen. Alexander."

The presentation was made by Chairman Rodman Wanamaker of the Committee of Welcome, who brought the Commander of the 77th Division to City Hall with Mrs. Alexander. The latter, introduced as the "real" General, blushed until her cheeks became as pink as the roses in her corsage.

Mayor Hylan, introduced as "Hon. East John Hylan," paid high tribute to the valor of officers and men of the 77th and expressed New York's sympathy for "the wives who gave their husbands and the mothers who gave their sons to bring peace and safety to all nations." Gen. Alexander replied, in part:

"It was my good fortune last Christmas Day to tell the President of the United States of the great ennobling principles of Americanism which actuated the rank and file of the men I had the great honor to command."

"It was these principles, Mr. Mayor, that pushed the 77th Division through the tortures of Argonne which, up to that time, had been deemed impracticable. It was these principles that furnished the stamina during those trying twenty days of battle when the 77th arose from its bed in the mud and attacked and attacked until the day was won."

"Those boys—your New York City boys—paid the price. They never asked relief. They were there to do or die and they played the game like men. I shall not try to express in mere words the pride that fills my heart when I think of the 77th in action."

"We have tried to bring these boys back to you safe in mind and clear in body. While the 77th was in France our commander in chief insisted above all things that the men be safeguarded, not only in battle, but in camp and billets, from the perils and temptations which I think you can imagine."

"We owe a great debt of gratitude to the various welfare associations which have aided in carrying out our commander in chief's wishes. The men of the 77th have come back to you, safe in mind and clear in body. They are all good citizens and a credit to the nation whose liberties they fought to defend. Keep them so."

MACHINE GUN DISPERSES LAWRENCE STRIKE CROWDS

Manned by Ex-Soldiers, Who Assist Police—Crew Not Called on to Shoot.

LAWRENCE, Mass., May 5.—A machine gun crew was added to the police force to-day and assisted in dispersing crowds of textile strike sympathizers although the gun was not fired. Reports that a big demonstration had been arranged to signalize the opening of the fourteenth week of the strike had led the police to take extra precautions to prevent another outbreak of violence.

All the men of the gun crew are former soldiers. They were in police uniform and commanded by Sgt. Joseph P. Casey, who was decorated for bravery in France.
